1. Stolp-Reitz (P 55/N 09) airfield had no concrete runway. The barracks installations on the edge of the field were reconditioned and occupied by Polish Naval and Air Force soldiers.
2. Five twin-engine aircraft, three single-engine fighters, one plane and one glider were parked at the field. All of the planes had the Polish national emblem. They were observed making individual flights over the town throughout the summer. *
